CENTRAL OFFICE
BOARD MEETING
May 17, 2010

7. Audience members that wished to address the board:

A. David Nicely wanted to present an award to Staci Butts from the VFW Post 239 but she was not present. He also addressed the issue of hiring inexperienced people for support positions. He also stated that the board took 8 people to the beach and each had separate condominiums and that it was an excessive waste of money. He also wanted to know why the superintendent's salary was not posted on the St. Clair County website along with the salary schedule.

8. Laura Nance presented the financial report for April 2010.

10. Board member comments:

- A. Mr. Green said that he was proud of all of the students and that he appreciated the recognition for them.
- B. Mr. Thompson agreed with Mr. Green's comments
- C. Mr. DeGaris commended Mr. Suttle as board president for communicating with the board members. He also congratulated Constance Seymour and said that she had a professional attitude regarding the Margaret Elementary School principal position.
- D. Mrs. Cobb wished all the seniors great success as they go in to new and uncharted waters. She hopes that they will come back home and use their talents here.
- E. Mrs. Noah seconded Mrs. Cobb's comments and said that she was proud of the RHS softball players for winning the State Championship.
- F. Mr. Suttle said that it is a good time of year to see the fruits of everyone's labor and congratulated all of the students.

11. Superintendent's comments:

Mrs. Seals said that we will recognize the SHS, MHS, and RHS ball teams in the fall. She said that they all participated in the state softball tournament and Ragland won the 1A Championship. She said that we will also recognize the AMS and AHS Archery teams in the fall as well. AMS won the National Championship and AHS was 4th runner-up. She said that we would recognize the SGA and Math Team students from OMS at the June board meeting. She then congratulated Constance Seymour for her appointment at OIS. She then directed the floor to Dr. Baker who introduced Sara Whiteside as the new Consumer Science teacher for AHS. Next she announced that May 25 was the last day for students.
